HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 690
By Davis (Wash)

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Amy Colley upon being named Tennessee's Fairest of the Fair for

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should salute those young citizens who, through their extraordinary efforts, have distinguished themselves as community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, one such exemplary young person is Amy Colley who was recently named Tennessee's Fairest of the Fair for 2002; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Colley was crowned the Fairest of the Fair for the Appalachian Fair in Gray last August, and is one of only three women from the East Tennessee area who have won the prestigious Fairest of the Fair state title; and

WHEREAS, a distinguished scholar, Amy Colley is a seventeen-year-old Senior at David Crockett High School; in the future, she plans on studying to become a registered nurse; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Colley has participated in pageants since her childhood and loves meeting and developing friendships with the other pageant contestants; and

WHEREAS, a bright and conscientious young woman, Amy Colley realizes the awesome responsibility of winning a title and serving as a representative of her community; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Colley's considerable accomplishments are a great source of pride for her parents, Stephen and Janet Dell; her sister, Victoria; her community and this State; and

WHEREAS, as a local and state winner of the Fairest of the Fair pageant, Amy Colley represents her community and the State of Tennessee and its citizenry with the utmost decorum, grace, and joy; and

WHEREAS, she epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, this General Assembly finds it appropriate to pause in its deliberations to acknowledge and applaud Ms. Colley for her significant achievements; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby honor and congratulate Amy Colley upon being named Tennessee's Fairest of the Fair 2002, commend her dedication, enthusiasm, and persistence, recognize her exceptional strength of character, and extend to her our best wishes for every continued success and happiness during her reign and in all her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
